3. Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival at Kathmandu and trekking preparation

Altitude: 1350 m

Stay: Hotel

You may visit Kathmandu at any moment. An airport official will greet you when you arrive at Tribhuvan International Airport. He will help you get to your hotel. There are no scheduled activities for the day, so you can check into your hotel and rest. The guide will also give you an overview of tomorrow's trekking trip. Overnight stay at a hotel in Kathmandu. Annapurna Base Camp welcome

Day 02: Drive from Kathmandu to Pokhara – 6 to 7 hours by tourist bus

Altitude: 820 m

Meals: Breakfast

Stay: Hotel

Today, you will be driving to Pokhara- the tourist hub of Nepal and the region's commercial center. Pokhara is situated beside the pristine Phewa Lake and is also situated close to the Annapurna Mountains. From Kathmandu, you will be driving through the winding roads along the Trishuli Gorge towards Pokhara. As you approach Pokhara, you can get your first view of the Annapurna Mountains. Overnight stay at the Hotel in Pokhara. Flight to Pokhara Note: You can avoid the tourist bus and take flight if you want. If you take a flight to Pokhara you need to add USD 110.

Day 03: Drive to Nayapul and trek to Tikhedhunga

Altitude: 1570 m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

From Pokhara, you will take a short drive towards Nayapul via the Baglung Highway, going around high hills covered in pine trees. From Nayapul, you will then begin your trek to Tikhedhunga, following a path through the thick woodlands. You will also pass through the small settlement of Birethanti along the way to reach Tikhedhunga. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at Tikhedhunga. Drive to Nayapul

Day 04: Trek from Tikhedhunga to Ghorepani

Altitude: 2840 m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

The trekking trail looms on ahead into the woods from Tikhedhunga and disappears into the dense trees. Moreover, the path gradually turns steep. Approximately two hours from Tikhedhunga lays the village of Ulleri- situated amidst rolling green terrace farms. Further still is the settlement of Banthanti. Finally, after the stretch of dirt roads and distant farmlands, the path reaches Ghorepani. Views of peaks in Dhaulagiri, Annapurna, and Hiunchuli ranges from here are quite amazing. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at Ghorepani.

Day 05: Hike up from Ghorepani to Poon Hill (3210m) - 45 minutes, Trek to Tadapani

Altitude: 2620 m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

Situated above the ridge from Ghorepani lays one of the most famous vantage points of the region- Poon Hill. Early in the morning, you will visit Poon Hill, trekking along a steep ridge. Poon Hill presents panoramic views of the entire Mount Annapurna massif and many of its surrounding and neighboring peaks dramatically. After spending time in

Poon Hill taking in the view, you will head back down to Ghorepani, have breakfast and then trek on towards Tadapani. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at Tadapani. Poon hill view point

Day 06: Trek Tadapani to Chhomrong

Altitude: 2140 m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

The trekking trail passes through thick rhododendrons and bamboo groves, pine and cedar woodlands, taking you to Chhomrong. Along the journey, you can enjoy the singing of the Himalayan cicadas in the woods and the peaceful ambiance the Himalayas project down onto the valley. Occasionally, you may come across mule caravans and local village people going about their day. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at Chhomrong. Chhomrong

Day 07: Trek from Chhomrong to Himalayan Hotel

Altitude: 2920m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

From Chhomrong, you will follow the trail that drops down the ravine towards Chhomrong Khola. From the river, the trail picks up altitude and traverses through the juniper-laden terrain towards the settlement of Khuldighar. Today's trek is a constant up-and-downhill journey before reaching Dovan. Continue to the path picks up a certain altitude as it trails up the valley. The Himalayan bamboos cover the path, providing shade and uplifting the natural feel of the whole journey to finally reach at Himalayan hotel. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at the Himalayan Hotel. Pajenhyam Baraha Temple Note: You are now entering the Himalayan Baraha region, part of the Annapurna Base Camp Trek. The Pajenhyam Baraha Temple, a revered site of sacred faith and belief, has long been considered a religious seat in this area. It is recognized as a shakti pitha, believed to offer protection against natural calamities and unforeseen accidents. Carrying meat products within this area is strictly prohibited, as ancient legends warn of great misfortune if such items are brought here. We respectfully ask that you avoid littering, unnecessary noise, and other disruptive activities in this sacred space.

From the Himalayan Hotel, Along the way, you will also pass by the Hinku Cave before reaching Deurali. You will follow the pathway towards the Annapurna Sanctuary, where the Machhapuchhre Base Camp is located. The base camp of Machhapuchhre isn't exactly a base camp in practicality because the mountain is considered sacred and is not allowed to be climbed. Through the Annapurna Sanctuary, you will go, following the path that is surrounded by tall cliffs on all sides. Further, two hours from the sanctuary is the Annapurna Base Camp from where the views of the neighboring mountain peaks are magnificent. Overnight stay at the ABC. Annapurna Base Camp

Day 09: Trek back from the Annapurna Base Camp to Bamboo

Altitude: 2345 m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

From the Annapurna Base Camp, the pathway back towards the lowland villages goes through the sanctuary and delves down the valley towards the Modi River. You will traverse the trail as it winds down the terrain, enjoying the landscape and the looming mountains. Finally, you will reach the village of bamboo. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at Bamboo. Bamboo

Day 10: Trek from Bamboo to Jhinu Danda (Hot Spring)

Altitude: 1780 m

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

The path that leads towards Jhinu Danda is rocky and steep, but once you reach the valley floor, it becomes level again. Nestled between jarring cliffs and thick woods beside the river, Jhinu Danda is one of the best places to relax, as the village harbors a natural hot spring that is believed to have natural healing properties. After reaching Jhinu, you have a dip in the hot spring and relax, enjoying the environment and the local hospitality. Overnight stay at the guesthouse at Jhinu Danda. Bamboo to Jhinu Danda

Day 11: Trek from Jhinu Danda (Hot spring) to Siwar to Nayapul drive to Pokhara
