Stay: Teahouse

- Your driver will be waiting for you at the hotel reception to take you to the airport.
- Take a flight and enjoy a scenic 30- minute flight with a breathtaking aerial view of the Himalayas.
- Land in Tenzing Hillary airport and meet your guide and porter
- Begin your trek toward the hamlet of Phakding following the bank of Dudh Koshi River
- Pass through small villages like Chheplung and Ghat.
- Arrive in Phakding and stay at the teahouse.

Day 03: Trek from Phakding to Namche Bazaar

Altitude: 3,440m/11,286ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- Leave Phakding after breakfast and follow the Dudh Koshi River
- Cross many thrilling suspension bridges decorated with prayer flags
- Hike through pine forests and pass small towns like Zamfute, Toktok, and Benkar.
- At Monjo, register your permit and enter the Sagarmatha National Park.
- Cross the famous Hillary Suspension Bridge over the Dudh Koshi River.
- Hike to Zigzag Hill and witness the first view of Mt. Everest from the viewpoint if weather permits.
- Arrive at tourist hub Namche Bazaar and stay in a teahouse.

Day 04: Acclimatization day in Namche Bazaar

Altitude: 3,440m/11,286ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- Today is a rest day in Namche Bazaar so we will follow the acclimatisation rule “ climb high sleep low”.
- You will go for a short hike around the village and return to the teahouse for sleep.
- There are plenty of options you can choose:

Hike to Hotel Everest View: Early in the morning, hike to the stunning Hotel Everest View. In just 1.5 hours, you will arrive at this luxury hotel, where you can enjoy a delicious breakfast with a panoramic view of Mt. Everest, Lhotse, and Ama Dablam. Hike to Kunde or Khumjung: The round trip from Namche to Kunde and Khumjung takes around 3 to 4 hours. In this village, you will get the opportunity to explore the Kunde Hospital, Khumjung Monastery, and Khumjung School established by Sir Edmund Hillary. Sherpa Culture Museum and Sherpa National Park Museum: Located just above the town of Namche Bazaar, you can visit the Sherpa Culture Museum, which showcases Sherpa heritage. The display features historic climbing equipment, traditional clothing, and artifacts that highlight the culture of the Sherpa people. Inside the National Park Museum, there is a traditional Sherpa house, a Mount Everest document centre, Library & Photo Gallery. Saturday market: Every Saturday from 8 AM to 12 PM, locals from the Khumbu region host a market where they sell local products and some trekking gear at low prices.

Day 05: Trek from Namche Bazaar to Tengboche

Altitude: 3860m/12,730ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- Depart from Namche and begin walking along a flat trail that runs high above the Dudh Koshi River.
- Along the way, enjoy spectacular views of Mount Everest, Ama Dablam, and other majestic Himalayan peaks.
- Continue past the small settlement of Kyangjuma until you reach Sanasa.
- From Sanasa, take a steep descent through the forest to Phunki Tenga, which sits at 3,250 meters—the lowest point of today's trek. Take a break for lunch or a short rest beside the Dudh Koshi River at Phunki Tenga.
- Afterward, cross the long suspension bridge over the river
- Begin a challenging uphill climb through beautiful pine and rhododendron forests
- Arrive at Tengboche, located at 3,860 meters, one of the most scenic villages in the Everest region.
- Explore the Tengboche monastery, the largest gumpa in the Khumbu region
- Spend the night at a teahouse in Tengboche village.

Day 06: Trek from Tengboche to Pheriche

Altitude: 4,200m/13,779ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- Enjoy breakfast before departing from Tengboche.
- Descend through beautiful rhododendron and pine forests until you reach Deboche.
- Cross a wooden bridge over the Imja Khola River.
- Cross a wooden bridge over the Imja Khola River and continue along a gradual uphill trail to Pangboche (3,985 m), the highest permanent Sherpa settlement in the Everest region.
- Take a moment to visit the historic Pangboche Monastery, one of the oldest monasteries in the Khumbu region.
- Stop in Pangboche for lunch while enjoying views of Ama Dablam and the surrounding Himalayan peaks.
- Continue trekking through alpine meadows and yak grazing pastures towards Somare (4,010 m). The trail gradually becomes more open, with vegetation becoming sparse as the altitude increases.
- Follow the valley trail, crossing a small stream before entering the wide Pheriche Valley.
- Finally, arrive at Pheriche (4,200 m), a peaceful village surrounded by towering Himalayan mountains and spend the night.

Day 07: Trek from Pheriche to Lobuche

Altitude: 4,940m/16,207 ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- After breakfast, we will depart from Pheriche and start walking across the wide glacial valley, following the trail alongside the Khumbu River.
- Cross a small bridge before gradually ascending to the village of Dughla (also known as Thukla), which is at an elevation of 4,620 meters.
- Once we reach Dughla, we'll take a short break before tackling the steepest climb of the day.
- Ascend the challenging Thukla Pass, climbing over the rocky terminal moraine of the Khumbu Glacier.
- At the top, we will reach the famous Everest Memorial Park, where stone memorials honor the mountaineers and Sherpas who lost their lives on Everest and other Himalayan peaks.
- Continuing along a rugged trail beside the Khumbu Glacier, we can enjoy spectacular views of the surrounding snow-covered mountains. The trail becomes rocky and uneven, and with the thinning air, the final section will be more demanding.
- Eventually, we will arrive at Lobuche, a small settlement located beside the Khumbu Glacier, at an elevation of 4,940 meters.
- Spend the night at a local teahouse in Lobuche.

Day 08: Trek to Gorak Shep, Visit Everest Base Camp and Return to Gorak Shep

Altitude: 5,163m/16,939ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- After breakfast in Lobuche, follow a rocky trail along the lateral moraine of the Khumbu Glacier toward Gorak Shep, the last permanent settlement before Everest Base Camp.
- Trek through glacial terrain while enjoying spectacular views of Nuptse, Pumori, and the surrounding Himalayan peaks.
- You will arrive at Gorak Shep (5,164 m) after approximately three hours. Check into your teahouse, enjoy lunch, and leave any unnecessary gear at the lodge before continuing your journey to Everest Base Camp.
- Follow the rugged trail along the edge of the Khumbu Glacier, navigating rocky moraines and glacial terrain.
- Reach Everest Base Camp (5,364 m), which serves as the starting point for Everest expeditions.
- Spend some time exploring the base camp, taking photographs, and soaking in the unforgettable views of the Khumbu Icefall and the surrounding mountains.
- If you are there during the spring climbing season, you may also see colorful expedition tents.
- After your visit, retrace your steps along the same trail back to Gorak Shep, which should take about 2-3 hours. Enjoy dinner and spend the night at a local teahouse in Gorak Shep.
- Go to bed early in preparation for the early morning hike to Kala Patthar tomorrow.

Day 09: Hike to Kala Patthar (5,545m) and Trek to Lobuche

Altitude: 4,940m/16,207ft

Meals: Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner

Stay: Teahouse

- Wake up early, before dawn, for the hike to Kala Patthar (5,545 m), the highest point of the Everest Base Camp Trek.
- Be sure to carry a headlamp and warm clothing, as temperatures will be well below freezing in the early morning.
- Ascend a steep, rocky trail with several switchbacks while enjoying the peaceful atmosphere before dawn.
- Upon reaching the summit of Kala Patthar, witness a spectacular sunrise over Mount Everest, along with panoramic views of Lhotse, Nuptse, Pumori, and the Khumbu Glacier.

- Take some time to capture photographs before carefully descending back to Gorak Shep (5,164 m).
- Enjoy a hot breakfast at the teahouse and prepare for the return journey.
- Leave Gorak Shep and follow the rugged trail along the Khumbu Glacier toward Lobuche.
- As you walk, pass by the Everest Memorial Park, where stone monuments commemorate climbers and Sherpas who lost their lives in the Himalayas.
- Continue descending through the glacial moraine until you reach Lobuche (4,940 m).
- Check into a local teahouse in Lobuche and spend the evening resting after your unforgettable experience of witnessing the sunrise over Everest.
- Enjoy an overnight stay at the local teahouse in Lobuche.
